ANNOUNCEMENTS.

STATE SENATE.—We are authorized to announce that Sen. T. Robinson as a candidate for State Senator, from the counties of Hopkins and Christian, subject to the action of the Republican party.

BAKER.—We are authorized to announce Dr. E. S. Baker, of Madisonville, as a candidate for State Senator, from the counties of Hopkins and Christian, subject to the action of the Republican party.

FOR MAGISTRATES.—

MORRIS.—We are authorized to announce Mr. William Morris as a candidate for Magistrate in the Second Magisterial District of Hopkins County, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, August 1st.

EMINENT statisticians calculate that the winter wheat crop will be 60,000,000 bushels beyond the Government estimate.

CHRISTIAN county has a splendid wheat crop now being threshed and the buyers are actively at work preparing to handle the big yield.

DR. W. G. HUNTER is selling his property at Burksville, it is stated, with a view to his early departure for a diplomatic post which he is sure of getting. That's what the wires say.

The average Populist has about decided that he was bamboozled once too often by the Democrats fast fall and is against a repetition. He don't like "fusion" that gives all the offices to the Democrats.

The Omaha World-Herald, Mr. Bryan's personal organ has abandoned that gentleman in so far as to call attention to the activity and general improved condition of stock business and markets in the West and predicts a continuation of these conditions.

A MOVEMENT is on foot to erect a monument costing $5,000 in the court house square at Princeton to the memory of the late Judge F. W. Darby. A board of directors has been appointed to push the matter. Hon. Polk Laffoon is a member for Hopkins county.

The Bee acknowledges the receipt of the first number of The Gold Standard, published at Smithland, Ky., conducted strictly as a sound-money paper. The establishment of such a paper is evidence of the growing sentiment in favor of the standard it advocates.

INDICATIONS are that the proposed fusion of Republicans and National Democrats in the Appellate Clerkship race will not be effected. The National Democrats will not put their nominees under the Log Cabin. They desire to strengthen their organization by making a fight independent of the Republican party.

THE representation as determined upon for the sound money State Democratic Convention to be held in Louisville July 14, will be based on Cleveland's vote for 1892, allowing one delegate for 200 votes or fraction over 100 votes. Hopkins is entitled to ten delegates; Webster, to six; Christian to twelve; Henderson, to eleven.

The New York World estimates that a loss of $24,962,500 monthly will be caused by the coal miners' strike, provided 375,000 men should quit work. This estimate only includes loss to miners, operators and to the railroads in freights. Of this amount $10,125,000 a month is stated as the probable loss to the miners in wages. If the loss that would be entailed on the manufacture and trade and the individual citizen of the country could be estimated or guessed at some idea might be formed as to how serious would be the result of such a strike upon the now generally acknowledged steady returning prosperity.

On July 2, silver was worth 60 cents an ounce, and our silver dollar was worth about 40½ cents. Wheat and other products are not declining with silver and the advocates of 16 to 1 who last year voted at the law of supply and demand now have concluded that there must be something in it, for they'll just "be darned" if they will give the prospective tariff bill credit for anything in the prosperity line.

PATRICK DOLAN, an official of the United Mine Workers in the Pittsburgh district says:

"There are too many mines, not too many miners. It is the surplus of operators that causes such sufferings and low wages."

The supposition is that he means that the great number of operators produces fierce and unwise competition which in turn demoralizes prices and makes it impossible to pay miners living wages. And there is some truth in it.

The Louisville Dispatch quotes the Memphis Appeal as follows:

"Eugene Debs declares Free silver is dead and henceforth he will advocate State socialism. If Debs had made this announcement before the last election the result might have been different. The Debs and Doodleheads and other hair-brained theorists injured the cause of silver by their advocacy of it." Likely by Doodleheads and hair-brained theorists these Popocat papers allude to Tillman, Altgeld, Thomas Watson, Marion Butler and some others who refuse to faze and have their wind shut off. What the Popocat wants is that the Populist vote, and vote for them, and stop talking. See—Grayson Eagle.

THE Owensboro collectorship fight has been settled by the appointment of Mr. T. J. Yandell of Marion. Mr. E. T. Franks is to be chief deputy with, as is understood, an equal division of salary. When it was discovered that Mr. Yandell had failed of the appointment as deputy United States Marshal the Crittenton Press said;

"Every man in Crittenton county irrespective of party affiliation was anxious that Mr. Yandell should get the place, because he is a person of the people who know him as a competent, honest, worthy, deserving man."

THERE is a "Captain" somebody down at Mayfield, where they are accustomed to regulate matters in their own way without the law for a referee, who has been to Nashville and has come back mad at the railroad companies. He is mad because he had to wait for his ticket to be stamped at the selling office, because it had to be re-stamped at Nashville, because there was a rush of people in the depot there and because the railroad company had not put into their station at that city a big, clear, cool spring of running water with an iceberg in the center. He wants to own a newspaper long enough to "skin them alive." The "Captain" should take another trip or two away from home and learn how the world wags.

EX-GOVERNOE BOIES, of Iowa, is the author of the article abandoning the free coinage of silver at 16 to 1 and stating the futility of the fight to accomplish that impossible end, throws consternation into the camp of the political demagogues who continue the fight after the battle is lost. Speaking of the possibility of "convincing the American people that a gold standard is wrong" he says:

"There is no argument that can be used in the future to accomplish that end that was not thoroughly exhausted in the contest we lost." And this leader of the secession declares it impossible in his judgment to succeed on a platform demanding the unqualified free coinage of silver at 16 to 1.

DUN'S Review, which is looked upon by business men as a reliable indicator of business conditions, speaks encouragingly of the improvement in all lines. In its issue of June 26th it says: "There is no backward step in business, although the season of midsummer quiet is near. Improvement continues, gradual and prudently cautious as before, although in many branches evident where no signs of it appeared a few weeks ago. Business men of the highest standing in all parts of the country having gradually perceived that the tide has begun to rise, are regulating their contracts and investments and the plans for the future with a confidence quite unknown to them a short time ago. Great changes before the adjournment of Congress are hardly to be expected but removal of uncertainty is with reason expected to bring into operation buying forces which have been restricted for months. The main factor at that time is the steadily brightening prospect for crops. Harvesting of wheat has already begun with surprisingly good results, and statisticians of repute calculate that the winter wheat crop will be 60,000,000 bushels beyond the Government estimate."

AS USUAL.

(Hanson Exchange)

Madisonville does not celebrate the 4th. It is not that her citizens are devoid of patriotism, but they are not in the habit of doing such things and leave it all to progressive cities like Hanson and Earlinton. The tide has begun to rise, are regulating their contracts and investments and the plans for the future with a confidence quite unknown to them a short time ago. Great changes before the adjournment of Congress are hardly to be expected but removal of uncertainty is with reason expected to bring into operation buying forces which have been restricted for months. The main factor at that time is the steadily brightening prospect for crops. Harvesting of wheat has already begun with surprisingly good results, and statisticians of repute calculate that the winter wheat crop will be 60,000,000 bushels beyond the Government estimate."

The Lost Cause.

Ex-Governor Boies, of Iowa, one of the former leading champions of the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 has abandoned that proposition and now comes out in favor of a paper currency based on the market value of silver bullion. "Uncle Tom," as he is familiarly known, expresses the hopelessness of the free coinage proposition in the following words:

"For one, I do not believe it possible to succeed upon a platform that demands unqualified free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 with gold. We have fought that battle and it is lost. We can never fight it over under circumstances more favorable to ourselves. If we hope to succeed we must abandon this extreme demand."

Charlie Grassham Will Do.

Let us have a National Committee with whom to beat John Grapto for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney. The Bee believes there is such a man and favors his endorsement by the Republicans. The fact is we need a prosecuting attorney—Earlington Bee.

The Standard heartily voices the sentiment of THE BEE, and believes that Tim Bee has asked for can be found. Attorney Charles C. Grassham of this city, who has been nominated by the sound money Democracy, and endorsed by the Republicans of Livingston county for Commonwealth's Attorney is a wide-awake, energetic young gentleman, an able prosecutor, and as an attorney has no peer in this section of the State. Should Mr. Grassham accept the nomination he will doubtless be elected by a handsome majority.—The Gold Standard, Smithland, Ky.

The Labor Troubles.

(Globe-Democrat).

The fact that the coal miners have determined to quit work, thus largely increasing the area of the labor disturbance caused by the iron, steel and glass workers, who are already out, is an unfortunate circumstance. Of course, the demands of the miners, like those of the iron, steel and glass men, appear to the general public to be moderate. The "fair day's pay for a fair day's work" which the miners ask is eminently reasonable. In the best of times the wages of these workers are low, and they have been reduced in the last year or two more than once.

While it is estimated that at least two-thirds of the miners have thrown down their picks, enough men are still at work to seriously impair the chance unless they can ultimately be brought out. This, President Dolan confidently claims can be done. The operators, on the other hand, are in no wise disconcerted, and assert that the strike can not succeed.

In West Virginia the miners have been slow in responding to the strike order. A dispatch tonight says that a general strike in the State is not probable. The men are not organized, and they are inclined to regard the strike elsewhere as favorable to their chances for securing plenty of work at good prices while the strike order is in effect. The operators, on the other hand, are in no wise disconcerted, and assert that the strike can not succeed.

Mr. J. J. Hedges, of our young men of this community, has purchased a new guitar from which he says he wishes to learn to extract the "sweet strains of melody."

About twenty young ladies and gentlemen, of the Waggoner and Ashland neighborhoods, passed through last Sunday morning, going to Sulphur Springs, Union, Ky., to while away the long, sultry hours of the day in drinking the state-egg-flavored water which issue from those fountains.

We have a nice, level, shady yard and fence around our school-house here.

With just labor and expense it can be done.

Now let our seal for education, our interest in the welfare of the boys and girls of this neighborhood and in the upbuilding of citizenship in generally, prompt us to action along this line.

Last winter we heard a gentleman state that under the Cleveland administration, we had nothing but "floods and droughts;" now we have almost every day using steamboats, etc., to move the goods.

The big crop I ever saw—“I have never seen grain as good in my life.” “A fine prospect for a corn crop.” “My meadow, both grass and clover, is better than it has been for years.”

Truly, it does seem like the Lord always smiles on us when we place the Government in the hands of the G. O. P.

You find it in the Seabrook Herald or the Louisville Record, one or the other, or both—“1013,” or “1012,” or “1011” or “1010.”

Wedding Announcement.
The Bee has the pleasure of announcing the coming marriage of Miss Christina DeVylde to Prof. C. G. Pfaffenhauser next Tuesday morning at about 8:30 o'clock at the Catholic church of the Immaculate Conception. Miss DeVylde is an attractive daughter of Mr. J. F. DeVylde of this place. Prof. Pfaffenhauser has been a citizen of Earlington for some months and has won the good will and respect of many of the citizens of Earlington since he made his home in our midst. He is a teacher, student and composer of music, has two military bands under him here, and is an employee in the L. & N. Railroad shops at this place.
Three brass bands were abroad that day, the Sebree Cornet Band, the Earlington Colored Band, and the latter making music for the colored picnic that is always held in Alexander's Park on the 4th. The Sebree band deserves special mention for their excellent work and nuturing effort in furnishing good patriotic music for the occasion. Our own boys of the Earlington band did their work heartily and also showed considerable progress.
A procession of Sir Knights afoot and eighteen ladies horseback, accompanied by two brass bands marched to the park upon the arrival of the train from Sebree.
The couple will leave for a wedding trip on the north bound Chicago train Tuesday morning.
The Bee wishes them the greatest happiness.
Our New Postmaster.
Mr. Charles G. Robinson has been appointed postmaster at Earlington and will take charge as soon as he receives his commission and qualifies. The new office will be in the front end of Robinson Bros.' general store, on West Main street, and everybody will receive the most courteous and kind attention from the new postmaster and his efficient deputy, Miss Lillie Wilson, sister of the appointee, will be deputy postmaster.
A Live Tarantula.
The Fourth of July K. of P. picnic boys on Saturday found a live tarantula in a bunch of bananas, which they had bought to satisfy the appetites of the multitude. It is a fine specimen of the big spider and has been viewed by many persons who have never before seen one of its kind. Its cage is a fruit jar, with a perforated top and a bell of fresh grass.
Died.
Mr. Lowrey Baugh a farmer living near Earlington, died yesterday morning after an illness of some weeks. He was a brother to Mr. Ross Baugh and Mrs. J. R. Dean of Earlington. His wife survives him.
Doctor Chatten.
Dr. E. A. Chatten, who has been a student at the medical college for some days awaiting an operation for appendicitis, suffered that operation Tuesday, and at last accounts was reported doing nicely. The doctor has suffered greatly during this illness. Mrs. Chatten is still with him in Evansville.
Tromonda Celebrate.
With thankfulness their restoration to health by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla.
Think of the vast army who have been cured by the medicine.
Men, women and children, who have suffered the consequences of impure blood, who have been the victim of scrofula, sores, eruptions, dyspepsia, nervousness, sleeplessness.
They have tried other medicines and failed to obtain relief. They tried Hood's Sarsaparilla and it did them good. They persevered in its use, and it accomplished permanent cures. Do you wonder that they praise it and recommend it to you?
Prof. J. E. Kemp and family, of Barnesville, Ga., are with relatives here spending the vacation. The Professor for the past two years has been teaching in the Gordon Institute at that place, and will retain his chair in that school during the coming year.
Mr. Phillips, the courteous representative of E. E. Sutherland Medicine Co., of Des Moines, Iowa, one of the Bee's advertisers, was here yesterday, sold a nice bill and renewed contract for advertising that company's medicines in THE BEE for another year. THE BEE's advertisers always renew.
HYATT CAPTURED.
Taken in Kansas City while in a Turkish Bath Room.
NO FAKE ABOUT IT THIS TIME.
Earlington's City Marshal has a private telegram confirming the news.
WE CELEBRATED.
Another Big Fourth of July Picnic to Earlington's Credit.
OUR PEOPLE KNOW HOW
And Never Forget to Properly Commemorate the Country's Independence.
OVER-HEATED.
A St. Louis Woman Enters Home Leaves the Train at Barnsley.
Mrs. Virginia Bent, of St. Louis, Mo., was a passenger on the L. & N. train No. 52, yesterday morning traveling from Bowling Green to St. Louis. When the train stopped at Barnsley, two miles south of this place, she jumped off, leaving all her baggage in the coach and was left there.
Mr. Nathan Priest, marshal of Barnsley, took charge of her and brought her here, where Master of Trains M. Devney, arranged to send her on to St. Louis by the fast train last night. It is supposed that Mrs. Bent was temporarily unbalanced by the intense heat.
Cyprian Troullius, a Frenchman who formerly lived near Barnsley, was assassinated at his home about three miles southwest of Nebo Monday evening, while eating his supper. Nobody but his wife and two children were on the place when the deed was done. Mrs. Troullius says her husband was eating a late supper and had almost finished when the shooting occurred. He was sitting with his back to an open window, and it was through this window, she says, the contents of a shot gun was emptied into his head. The back of his head was torn away. Mrs. Troullius says she was clearing away the supper dishes at the time. She left the place immediately after the shooting occurred, taking her two children with her and went to the house of her nearest neighbor. She gave the alarm and the management of the house immediately sent for Dr. H. C. Kilmer, Kilmer being the physician of the neighborhood.
The glorious Fourth was celebrated in Earlington this year, as it has been celebrated in all the past years, in a hearty manner by a multitude of people.
The Knights of Pythias have for some years past practically appropriated the Fourth of July in Earlington, and the big picnics they give become famous for miles around. The story of the beautiful picnic grounds at Lakeside Park, Loch Mary, and the equally beautiful surroundings has become so well grounded in the minds of the people within hearing, and the magnitude and success of the picnics given there are so well known, that the many people who enjoy a picnic are sure always to attend these celebrations.

LESSON II, THIRD QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, JULY 11.

Text of the Lesson, Acts xvi, 22-34—Memory Verses, 23-31—Golden Text, Acts xvi, 31—Commentary by the Rev. D. M. Sterns.

23. "And the multitude rose up together against them, and the magistrates rent off their clothes and commanded to beat them."—Commentary for that interfering with the god of the earth, that is, the power of the devil, for when the devil's property is touched, he soon begins to roar. Our Lord has taught us that true fellowship with Him will surely bring the same treatment that He received (John xv, 18-20). In the world, the flesh and the devil are all decidedly against God, and if we are for God we must be against them all costs.

23. "And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely; and when they had been taken off their clothes, and they would have no love nor gentleness in this sounding, he meant many and heavy stripes upon their bare backs. It meant real pain and much of it, besides the gentle rebuke of leaving their clothes when they were perfectly innocent. Paul afterward speaking of it says, 'We were shamefully treated at Philippis' (1 Thess. ii, 2).

24. "Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and ministered unto them; and when Paul saw that he was there any tenderness in this man's handling of them. It is injustice and cruelty throughout, the devil and his followers let loose upon the children of God strange mystery of Infidelity which has been coming upon the world. Not to suffer every man to use his own liberty, but to suffer every man to use his own infidelity and end is not yet. If any one can tell why God permitted the devil to tempt Eve, we will gladly listen. If not, we will still believe that God is love, trust Him for grace to endure mighty afflictions and wait for His promises to be fulfilled.

25. "And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed and sang praises unto God, and the prisoners heard them." Here, surely, is the victory of faith and obedience to the word, "Rejoice and be exceeding glad, for great is your reward in heaven." (Matt. viii, 12.) The same God who would prevent the fire from bursting Daniel's friends could smother the bleeding backs of Paul and Silas and all them and their dungeon with His glory. They did not praise themselves of circumstances, but in spite of circumstances, Consider that mighty "yet" of Heb. iii, 17. Let us pray.

26. "And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken, and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one's bonds were loosed. One of the officers at that time had a Philistine name, a earthly friend enough to keep them out of prison, there was power enough on their side to shatter the whole earth, if necessary.

27. "And the keeper of the prison, running out of his sleep and seeing the prison doors open, ran in to see if the slaves had indeed left himself, fearing that the prisoners had been fled." It was something new in his experience to have prisoners safe without bolts or bars and bars. It was natural for him to suppose that open doors meant escaped prisoners, and if he pursued it, accomplishing by his own hand rather than that of others.

28. "But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm, for we are all here." It was good for every master. The master had not done his duty, probably not even in the least degree, but Paul would have no heart to go to the jailer if he could prevent it. This is like Paul who prayed, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." I have wept over the forgetfulness of love.

29. "Then they called for light and sprang in and came rushing down before Paul and Silas." How God does turn the tables! See the man in authority bowing before the apparently helpless prisoners. He probably never thought of such a thing as this. Such wonderous also the earth and open prison doors. Was it not worth while to suffer for God to show Himself through them and on their behalf? Let us accept all events as opportunity for God to show His power and through them.

30. "And brought them out and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" He does not seem to have considered whether this treatment of prisoners was right or wrong. In the eyes of the law, he seemed to have done nothing. A sinful man having specifications with a great God whom he is not prepared to meet, and that he had better consider the matter at all costs, and that very quickly.

31. "And they then believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; and when that was done, what a joyful shout was raised, and they hopped up and all that were in his house." They were the messengers of the Lord of Hosts, and always ready to deliver their message, or rather His message. They would speak of Him who was foretold before the foundation of the world, but he had been recently manifested in the flesh as the Son of God and only Saviour of sinners.

32. "And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their stripes, and was baptized, he and all his straitway." Hallelujah, what a joyful shout saves instantly all who believe Him. He takes them fully and freely by His own precious blood without any works of theirs, and then begins at once to work in them the good works which He has before prepared (Eph. ii, 8, 10). We do not know that the jailer may have gone to get his wife to come and help him, but he did. And so when the jailer told him before, and yet still believes as soon as they hear, May God by His Spirit awaken His people to open all on earth the privilege of bearing of Him who still receives sinners.

33. "And when he had brought them into his house, he set a meal before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house." What a happy home what a glorious change, and in so short a time! A little while before they were a household of Christ, and therefore unused; but now a household of Christ, and therefore used. If the jailer had killed himself and died in life, he would have gone out into eternal torment, but now he has eternal life. Why are not all believers joyful and ever ready to pass on the good news of such a Salvior and such a salvation?

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic for the Week Beginning July 11.
Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

Topic—Individual responsibility for the sins of the world. (See 1 Cor. 15:22, 23.) (A monthly topic; prepared by the International Christian Endeavor convention.)

The individual to some extent today is being lost in the organization. In the church we have societies and organizations without number. In the business world there are trusts, syndicates, combinations, trades and labor unions without number. The same thing is true of the political, social and philanthropic world. The danger of all this is that the individuals may be lost sight of, and the organization and the society itself, which they may also pass away, individual responsibility, for nothing could repair the loss of individual responsibility.

Organization also characterizes the missionary world. The conversion of the world is sought largely through missionary societies, boards, committees and bands. This is necessary. Individuals must be bound together in this great work if it is to be effective and successful. But the danger to the individual is the same here as in other spheres of life. We should always remember that our greatest responsibility to God in all His work is our individual responsibility. We will not have to give an account for the society or the organization, but we will have to render an account of ourselves to God. This applies to our relation to the conversion of the world, no to every other Christian duty.

How can we meet this individual responsibility so far as the conversion of the world is concerned?

By individual interest in missions. Paul leaves us an illustrious example. He was intensely interested in spreading the gospel all over the world. He had "great heaviness and continual sorrow" in his heart for un-Christian Israel and would have given up his own hope of heaven if it could have saved them. Many of us have such a personal interest in the unchristian millions of the world today? How many of us sorrow and agonize for the lost souls of the world? Is it not true that the individual interest is so great that we feel the heaviest heart for the most ignorant, the most callous and the most hardened? And would we give up our time and energy to the work of saving the world if we gave the proceeds 2 cents a week for missions?

ABOUT THOSE TARIFF PROTESTS.

There are some smiles among the statesmen over the protests against our tariff measure which foreign nations are making. The general feeling is that these protests are, first, a piece of impertinence, since it is nobody's business but our own what kind of a tariff we make; and, second, of no consequence in the hearing on our commercial relations with those countries. Most of the nations from which have come grumblings as to our tariff sell us more than they buy from us, and while it is all right for them to get as low a tariff on their articles as possible, there is no likelihood that they are going to disturb their markets in this country by any retaliatory legislation which would injure their sales to us more than it affects ours to them. The fifteen countries from which hints of dissatisfaction exist, our tariff have come to hold us in the past decade $4,843,943,253 worth of goods, and bought from us only $3,059,220,782 worth.

HOUSE TARIFF RATES RESTORED.

2. By individual information in missions. How few Endeavorers know anything about misional. How often the accumulation of missionary knowledge is left to the committee itself. If we individuals knew of the awful souls of the world? Is it not true that the individual interest is so great that we feel the heaviest heart for the most ignorant, the most callous and the most hardened? And would we give up our time and energy to the work of saving the world if we gave the proceeds 2 cents a week for missions?

3. By individual gifts to the cause of missions. How much do we give for missions? Look over the past year and with compassion the "I" will give for missions in the past year in comparison to what I spent upon myself?—and it all that you could or should have given to save the world for Christ?

4. By individual prayer for missions. How many never pray for the needy saved? Few may leave this great subject for the missionary committee and in private, personal prayer never think of praying for the world!

Each Endeavorer, each Christian, has an individual responsibility toward the conversion of the world. May God help us each one, to meet it!

BIBLICAL READINGS.—Isa. xxv, 1-10; xliii, 6-7; xliii, 8; Nah. i, 18; Dan. xlii, 8; Matt. vi, 16; xxviii, 19, 20; Luke 11, 25-28; Act. i, 8; viii, 20-40; xliii, 1-6; Rom. i, 14, 15; 1 Cor. ix, 16; I Pet. v, 19, 20.

THE SUGAR SCHEDULE SCREAMERS.

The violent effort to cast aspersions on the bill and the Republican party with reference to the sugar schedule have met with an ignominious failure. The bill as it stands is generally satisfactory and cannot be successfully charged with favoritism toward the sugar trust, and should the conference restore absolutely the House rates, as many believe it will yet do, the bill will be looked upon as the most thoroughly satisfactory and complete in this and other features of any tariff measure which has passed Congress in many years.

WHY THERE IS A CURRENCY COMMISSION.

The question as to whether Congress will or will not immediately take up the currency revision is now looked upon with much interest. There are two sides to this question and both sides are being carefully examined by those who are to determine what the course of events is to be in this particular.

By many it is believed that the special work of the special session in the "passage of a tariff bill" having been so promptly and happily completed, the business element of the country would prefer an opportunity to adjust itself to the new conditions in regard to the tariff before being brought face to face with the currency problem.

Those who hold to this view believe that it would be better to defer any action on the currency question until the regular meeting of Congress in December and "give the country a rest." Whether this plan is determined upon or whether a currency commission shall be urged upon Congress at once is not fully determined, but the public may rest assured that there is no disposition on the part of the Administration to delay or trifle with the currency question any more than it has with the tariff.

A PROUD RECORD

Made by the Republican Party in Congress.

GREAT PROGRESS OF THE TARIFF BILL

Discussion as to Whether Congress Will Take Up the Currency Revision at Once.

WASHINGTON, July 6, 1897.—(Special)—The Republican party in Congress has completed a record of which the Republican party of the country may well be proud. That a party controlling both branches of Congress should be able to pass a tariff bill as quickly as has been accomplished this time is unprecedented, and that it should be able to do so when it controls but one branch of Congress is a record of which every member of the party from the President down to its humblest member may feel proud. Taking into consideration the bitterness of the campaign of last fall, nobody would have predicted or thought it possible that the party succeeding in that campaign, but failing to obtain control of both branches of Congress, could frame and pass a tariff bill so thoroughly protective and so thoroughly satisfactory to its adherents in so short a time. No such thing has ever happened in the history of the country. Indeed it has seldom if ever happened that a party having control of but one branch of Congress has passed a radical tariff measure even in three or four times the number of weeks which has been occupied in the passage of this bill.

STILL PUSHING FOR FINAL COMPLETION.

The conference between the House and Senate will, it is believed, be an unusually brief one. The fact that the Senate restored to the bill most of the House rates on important features warrants the belief that the time occupied in conference will be brief, and that the bill may reach the President by the end of the coming week, and become a law by the middle of July.
